

OPENING: SUPERINTENDENT OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS/DIOCESE OF WORCESTER

The Diocese of Worcester is comprised of some 290,000 Catholics amid a total population of over 800,000 in Central Massachusetts. There are more than 6,500 students under Catholic instruction in the Diocese attending 29 diocesan, parochial and private elementary and high schools. The next Superintendent of Catholic Schools will discover in this opportunity a wealth of talent among teachers, administrators, pastors, and volunteer leadership and will bring to this position a commitment to the Gospel message, the ability to champion Catholic Education's formation of the whole student, and demonstrated accomplishment in educational excellence. That person will also bring a dedication to the mission of the Diocese of Worcester to serve all in need and active personal involvement as a practicing Catholic. See www.worcesterdiocese.org/schools for a pdf of the detailed Search Prospectus and Profile.

ABOUT THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER

The Catholic Diocese of Worcester has nearly 1,000 Lay Employees working throughout the Diocese in almost every function, and we have varied opportunities for employment. The position offers a competitive salary and benefits package. We are committed to work/life balance as well as a focus on providing professional opportunities for ongoing success. We are proud to serve our communities with quality education that develops well-rounded individuals and a lifelong commitment to faith, family, understanding and community. Our Catholic schools educate the whole child, helping to build self-esteem, their ability to learn and their connection to the Catholic faith. The Diocese of Worcester does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices (consistent with those religious exemptions provided in statutory and constitutional law) on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law.
