Middle School Religion Teacher

(Approximately 11 hours per week; flexible schedule)

The middle school Religion teacher plans, guides, and evaluates the learning process of the students of Our Lady of the Assumption School within the framework of the school's mission statement and the philosophies of the Catholic Church. The Religion teacher is responsible for creating and teaching a curriculum which leads to greater understanding of the Catechism of the Catholic Church and scripture, with a focus on knowledge of faith, liturgical education, and moral formation. The Religion teacher at Our Lady of the Assumption School serves as a role model, example, and mentor to the students, providing intellectual, emotional, and spiritual growth toward a successful future.

Essential job functions:

- Supports and upholds the philosophy and teachings of Catholic education and the mission statement of Our Lady of the Assumption School
- Acts as a witness to Gospel values by modeling the teachings of the Catholic Church
- Supports and adheres to the Code of Conduct and policies and procedures of the school and Diocese of Boston
- Plans for grade specific instruction with logically sequenced objectives based on the Faith Formation Standards from the Archdiocese of Boston Catholic Schools.
- Provides appropriate material and resources for students to engage in learning
- Uses effective instructional methods/models according to professional standard practice
- Uses varied assessment tools to perform both formative and summative assessments
- Practices positive, consistent discipline in the management of the classroom
- Communicates with parents regarding academic, behavioral, or safety concerns
- Demonstrates professionalism in conduct, demeanor, and work habits

Three to five years teaching experience and Massachusetts teaching certification preferred.
