

Second Grade Teacher
Mount Alvernia Academy
Newton, Mass.

Mount Alvernia Academy, a Catholic Franciscan coed school educating children from preschool through grade 6, is seeking a second grade homeroom teacher for the 2017-2018 school year. This is a fulltime position. Ideal candidates will have a strong background in teaching methods and educational pedagogy as well as prior teaching experience in an elementary school setting. All applicants must be practicing Roman Catholics with the ability to instruct in sacramental preparation, have a love and respect for students, and be committed to instilling a passion for learning in each child. Experience with integrating technology to enhance learning is essential.

In addition, candidates must demonstrate excellent written and verbal competencies; have excellent organizational skills; have the ability to multitask; be able to coordinate projects and schedules in a fast-paced environment; be a positive team player with a desire to contribute and share his/her gifts and talents with students and administration of the school; communicate and collaborate effectively with students, families, and colleagues; follow established curriculum; be able to differentiate instruction and to level questioning; and participate in professional learning communities, grade-level activities, and school-wide functions. Candidates should hold a current teaching license as well as a degree from an accredited school in elementary education.

Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to Barbara McLaughlin, Business Manager, at employment@maa.school.
