

Middle School History Teacher

St. John School in Canton, MA is seeking a Middle School History Teacher to begin work on August 28, 2017. The History Teacher will provide weekly instruction to students in Grade 6 through Grade 8 through the implementation of a diverse, engaging, standards-based program. This is a half time position with hours being 11:30 am until 3:30 pm Monday through Friday.

The ideal candidate will have a strong background in History, prior teaching experience, and a commitment to Catholic education. Teacher responsibilities include three classes of history each day as well as other duties.

Established in 1883, St. John School provides a Catholic education to children in Preschool (age 3) through Grade Eight. St. John School prepares our children to know, to believe, and to live our Catholic faith through academic excellence, community service, and above all, public and liturgical prayer.

Submission Instructions: Please submit cover letter and resume to Dr. Chris Flieger, Principal, St. John School, at chris.flieger@sjscanton.org.
