

NOT FOR SCHOOL BUT FOR LIFE

St. Jerome School in Weymouth, MA has an immediate opening for a PART-TIME special education teacher to perform the following duties:

- Writing educational plans and progress reports for students on IEPs in grades Kindergarten through Grade 8.
- Provide specially designed instruction for students with IEPs.
- Responsible for following the students' IEPs and ensuring compliance with state and federal SPED regulations.
- Responsible for providing high-quality, individual instruction and for providing strategies and modifications for individual students.
- Responsible for assessing student knowledge and academic progress using formal and informal means to develop measurable IEP goals and to support student learning.
- Responsible for creating and coordinating a schedule of services for students to comply with IEP requirements.
- Performance of other job-related duties as assigned.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Bachelors degree (required) or Masters-level degree in Special Education (preferred)
Massachusetts Special Education certification
Massachusetts licensure in Special Education.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

A minimum of three years' successful teaching experience in Special Education
Evidence of mastery of a wide variety of teacher competencies, curricula, and the understanding of a wide variety of effective instructional models, including multi-sensory, structured language techniques.
Excellent written and oral communication skills

This position would start immediately and is Part Time until the end of the school year.

Please send a cover letter, resume, and two references to:

Mr. J. A. Hauser, Principal – jhauser@stjeromeschoolweymouth.org